Day 1- Arrival in Serbia & Belgrade City Tour

Belgrade is the capital and largest city of Serbia. It is located at the confluence of the Sava and Danube rivers and the crossroads of the Pannonian Plain and the Balkan Peninsula. Nearly 1.7 million people live within the administrative limits of the City of Belgrade, a quarter of the total population of Serbia.

The City Tour includes:

Old Court was the royal residence of the Obrenović dynasty. Today it houses the City Assembly of Belgrade. The palace is located on the opposite Novi Dvor (New Palace).

The House of the National Assembly of the Republic of Serbia is the seat of the National Assembly of Serbia. The building is on Nikola Pašić Square in downtown Belgrade and is a landmark and tourist attraction. Between its completion in 1936 and 2006, it was the seat of the Parliament of Yugoslavia and the Parliament of Serbia and Montenegro.

Terazije square is the central town square and the surrounding neighborhood of Belgrade, the capital of Serbia. It is located in the municipality of Stari Grad. Today, Terazije has primarily function in the main transit square, surrounded by important public buildings, cultural institutions, hotels, public monuments, and parks. Though not classically shaped square, Terazije was historically important as the gathering spot and the former business and commercial center of Belgrade. The square is one of the oldest and most recognizable ambiance units of Belgrade. Due to its historical and cultural importance, Terazije was declared a protected spatial cultural-historical unit in January 2020.

Knez Mihailova Street connecting directly Terazije and Belgrade Fortress, Kalemegdan. It is the main pedestrian and shopping zone in Belgrade and is protected by law as one of the oldest and most valuable landmarks of the city. Named after Mihailo Obrenović III, Prince of Serbia, it features many buildings and mansions built during the late 1870s.

Belgrade Fortress consists of the old citadel (Upper and Lower Town) and Kalemegdan Park (Large and Little Kalemegdan) on the confluence of the River Sava and Danube, in an urban area of modern Belgrade, the capital of Serbia. It is located in Belgrade's municipality of Stari Grad. Belgrade Fortress was declared a Monument of Culture of Exceptional Importance in 1979 and is protected by the Republic of Serbia. It is the most visited tourist attraction in Belgrade, with Skadarlija being the second. Since the admission is free, it is estimated that the total number of visitors (foreign, domestic, citizens of Belgrade) is over 2 million yearly.

Republic Square is one of the central town squares and an urban neighborhood of Belgrade, located in the Stari Grad municipality. It is the site of some of Belgrade's most recognizable public buildings, including the National Museum, the National Theatre, and the statue of Prince Michael.

Day 2 - Fruska Gora Mountain – Sremski Karlovci - Novi Sad

Fruska Gora Mountain is a mountain in northern Serbia. Most of the area is administratively part of Serbia, but a small part on its western side extends into eastern Croatia. The area under Serbia forms one of the country's national parks. Sometimes it is also referred to as the jewel of Serbia due to its largely pristine landscape and protection effort. There are over a dozen Serbian Orthodox monasteries located on Fruška Gora. Ottoman documents mention 35 monasteries, of which 16 survived and are still active today. Due to such a large number of monasteries in one place, Fruška Gora is colloquially called Serbian Mount Athos. The Holy Synod of the Serbian Orthodox Church officially declared Fruška Gora the Holy Mountain on 12 October 2003.

Sremski Karlovci a small town located at the foot of the Fruška Gora Mountain and on the right bank of the Danube River. Where the first Serbian Gymnasium has established as well as the most beautiful pharmacy in this part of Europe.

Novi Sad visit starts by visiting Petrovaradin Fortress called 'Gibraltar on the Danube' due to its location and size, it is the number one attraction in Novi Sad. It represents one of the best-preserved artillery bastions in Europe with more than 16 km of underground ways and tunnels. The tour continues with sightseeing and walking through Novi Sad. Walking by the Serbian National Theater, the first theater in the country and the main city square called 'Liberty Square'. The square is surrounded by beautiful buildings such as City Hall, Vojvodjanska Bank building, hotel Vojvodina and the Roman Catholic Name of Mary Church-symbol of Novi Sad.

Day 3 - Smederevo - Viminacium archaeological park - Golubac fortress

Smederevo fortress was built in a very short period. Built at the confluence of the Jezava and Danube rivers on the orders of Serbian Despot Djuradj Brankovic, it was the biggest low-land fortress in Serbia.

Viminacium archaeological park, once the capital of the Roman province of Moesia Superior. See the bust of Constantine the Great and 17 more Roman emperors born in Serbia, as well as the amazing mosaic decorated floor. A special attraction here is the paleontological park with a mammoth skeleton discovered at a depth of 27 meters (one million years old).

Golubac fortress built on the rock at the entrance to the Iron Gates. Built-in the 14th Century, this fortress was once under the rule of Hungarians, Serbs, Turks, and Austrians. With strong walls and an ideal strategic location, this fortress has never been overrun. Located at the point where the 6 kilometers wide Danube enters the narrow passage through Djerdap Gorge, this stronghold controlled the navigation on the Danube River.

Day 4 - Belgrade - Boat to the River Cruising

Cruising by boat on the river: The cruise begins at the point of the two rivers merging in the heart of the city. Lighting from Belgrade Fortress, Sabor Church, and numerous bridges adds a touch of mystique to this voyage. You will pass by the Old City, Belgrade Fair, Ada Ciganlija, and Big War Island. This tour is sure to enrich your perception of Belgrade and help you experience it from a completely new perspective.

Explore Belgrade and lunch in some restaurants at Zemun: The urban section of Zemun is the both most northern and western section of the urban Belgrade. Zemun originally developed on three hills, Gardoš, Ćukovac and Kalvarija, on the right bank of the Danube, where the widening of the Danube begins and the Great War Island is formed at the mouth of the Sava river. These hills are not natural features. On the Zemun bank of the Danube river is the perfect place to relax and taste the fish from the Danube in one of the numerous restaurants.
